RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On February 20, 2020, Dustin Gibson filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillain-Barre Syndrome (GBS) resulting from the adverse effects of an influenza (flu) vaccination he received on October 4, 2018. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 20, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent determined that Petitioner “suffered the Table injury of GBS following a flu vaccine within the Table time period, and that there is not a preponderance of the medical evidence that petitioner's GBS was due to a factor unrelated to the vaccination" and that Petitioner "experienced sequelae of GBS for more than six months." Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that the scope of damages to be awarded is limited to petitioner's GBS and its related sequelae only. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
